

To whom it may concern:

Preventing XM & Sirius from providing me with local weather and traffic would be criminal. Stifling innovation from start-up companies sends a terrible message to a capitilistic society, that regulators bow to the wishes of PACs and those with the deepest pocket, that 1st Amendment rights are not worth protecting and that FCC is as corrupt as any government entity.